THE THIRD DEGREE

Copyright, 1910, By G. W. Dillingham Co

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS CHAPTERS.

Howard Jeffries marries waitress while at college and is disinherited by rich father. Step-mother visits apartments of her old flame, Robert Underwood, to try to prevent him ending his life when pressed by creditors. Howard, visiting Underwood, a former college-mate, seeking a loan, is asleep in the apartments during the interview and, as step-mother leaves, Underwood shoots himself. Howard awakens and is arrested and, by police third degree methods, is made to confess to the crime. His wife seeks aid of his family. Goes to see husband at prison. He tells her he is not guilty.

"But how can she know?" argued Alicia. "Howard confessed that he did it himself. If he had not confessed it would be different."

"He did not confess," replied the other calmly. "Mrs. Jeffries—she never confessed. If he did, he didn't know what he was saying."

KENTUCKIAN'S ILLNESS BAFFLED THE DOCTORS

The above likeness of J. W. O'Lee was taken since his restoration to health a few months ago. Mr. O'Lee is a member of the firm of The Nicholson-Polys Company, furniture dealers and funeral directors at Corbin, Ky. His quick recovery is a great surprise to his friends. In telling about his illness Mr. O'Lee says: "For eight months I was a physical wreck. I did not know what was the matter with me, and judging from the results of my treatment, the four doctors I employed at different times knew no more than I did myself. At any rate, they failed to help me. I was terribly reduced in flesh, and had no strength at all. I could neither eat nor work. I was extremely nervous, and greatly depressed in spirit. I had almost reached the conclusion that I never would get well."

"I was urged to try Cooper's New Discovery, but as I had no faith in patent medicines, I hesitated to do so. Finally, I went to a drug store in Lexington and bought a bottle. The promptness with which it helped me was astonishing, and I continued the treatment. Gradually I gained strength. My appetite returned, and I began to sleep well at night."

"In a few weeks I was feeling like a different man, and my recovery was more rapid. Three bottles of Cooper's New Discovery made me well. It has been two months since I stopped using the medicine, and I never felt better in my life. I now weigh 292 pounds."

"Cooper's New Discovery is a remarkable medicine. We are agents for it in this community," Kelly & Pollard.

HAMILTON, IN AIR, TO HURL REAL BOMBS

Daring Aviator Engaged by Government to Prove Utility of Airships in Warfare.

New York, N. Y., June 3.—An actual test of the utility of the aeroplane in warfare will be made for the first time in history at the military tournament to be held by United States troops and the militia of several states near Nashville, Tenn., from June 22 to 24. The government has engaged Charles K. Hamilton, the aviator who flew at El Paso for The Herald, to conduct the most extensive practical tests in aerial reconnoitering and bombardment ever attempted.

Hamilton is expected to give a most convincing demonstration of the aeroplane as an engine of war. He is considered one of the most daringly proficient air navigators in the world, says a Hearst news dispatch, and upon him will rest the responsibility of showing the doubting Thomases that the aeroplane can throw projectiles upon fortifications, buildings and troops below.

Hamilton will carry aloft from 200 to 300 pounds of highly explosive nitroglycerine bombs. Racing at a speed varying from 45 to 55 miles an hour, he will release the deadly cargo while at a height of a quarter of a mile above the earth, raining it down upon targets in the two-mile square area below in 75 instants. The targets underneath will consist of dummy fortifications, batteries, arsenals, bridges, trains and troops.

It has hitherto been held that the efficiency of the dirigible in warfare is limited.

IS CHARLES RUGGLES, YOUNG ACTOR, NOW A MARRIED MAN?

License is issued in Los Angeles, But Former El Pasoan Denies—Still Single, He Says.

Charles Ruggles, who used to do juvenile for Frank Leake and keep a lot of El Paso matinee girls on the batty wagon is getting some advertising out in Los Angeles.

Charles Ruggles, aged 24, took out a marriage license at the court house and 29 minutes later an excited young woman called up the Belasco theater, where Charles Ruggles, actor, holds the boards as juvenile, and in a prayerful voice demanded to know if "Charles Ruggles had went and got married like all them other actors."

Thereby started trouble for Ruggles. The name fitted, so did the age, but the blonde young Thespian denies; there must be another by the same name he says.

He was making up for the second act when interviewed. The "creator of men's fashions," in Los Angeles was seated on a soap box, his collarless shirt open at the neck and little rivulets of grease paint dripping down his throat.

"Aw, do I look like a Romeo?" began the thoroughly irritated juvenile, smudging an eyebrow into place. "Just throw a lamp over me and confide, do I look like a new married, just-did-it, a regulation wedding bell performer? No, I'm not married, I'm not even threatened with it. I was vacated once and that's all that ever happened to me. When I go to get married, I'll take a brass band along."

INDEPENDENTS SIGNING UP MANY BIG STARS

William A. Brady Gives Out List of Stunters, Who Are Aligned With The Shuberts.

The "independents" are gradually signing up more of the big stars now that the house managers of the country have broken away from the yoke of "the trust."

William A. Brady has just given out his first list of contractors made in connection with the Shuberts.

He has signed long time articles with James K. Hackett, Arnold Daly, Henry A. Dixey, Amelia Bingham, Virginia Harned, Andrew Mack and Guy Bates Post.

Mr. Brady also controls the tours of his wife, Grace George, and many other well known stars.

Brady has hooked with "the trust" in the past.

NEGRO PORTER AND HIS TIPS: A KNOWING JUDGE

A Pullman porter running through El Paso on the Golden State, has been tangled up in the Los Angeles courts.

The judge ordered the defendant, J. A. H. Eldridge, to pay his wife, Alice Eldridge, $20 a month maintenance.

Eldridge contended that he earned but $20 a month salary.

"What's your business?" asked the court.

"I'm a porter for the Southern Pacific," replied the man.

"Well then what about the tips you earn, how much do they amount to a month?"

"Well, I guess they average about $20 a month," the man replied.

"What kind of a porter are you?" asked the court. "Do you mean to say that all you can earn a month is $20? Now I know something about tips. Your run is from here to Chicago. That takes three days, and the cars are pretty well filled. There are ten sections and two drawing rooms. Every

PEARY SEES KING GEORGE

London, England, June 3.—Commander Robert E. Peary was presented to King George at Marlborough House and remained a half hour, telling his majesty something of his achievements and discussing the prospects of Capt. Scott's Antarctic expedition.

IMPROVEMENTS STOPPED.

Galveston, Texas, June 3.—The Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railroad has ordered the discontinuance of all improvement work in Texas, except work which is absolutely necessary. This action, officials state, is due to decisions by the United States circuit court and to the recent reduction of four cents in the cotton rate by the state railroad commission.

Saved Wife's Life

Husband's Praise

"My wife," writes D. W. Bates, of Caldwell, O., "thinks that CARDUI is wonderful and that she owes her life to it. She has suffered for some time with female complaint, and would be troubled for weeks. After taking a few bottles of CARDUI she was relieved and now can do her housework right along without suffering any pain. CARDUI did so much for my wife, we think it is the greatest medicine on earth for women."

Every woman knows the symptoms of female trouble, how the whole system is affected—the suffering and misery of it. To obtain relief we urge you to take CARDUI, the specific, tonic medicine for such ills. For more than half a century, CARDUI has been successfully relieving suffering women—thousands of them. Letters from these women tell of the great relief CARDUI gave. Doesn't it seem reasonable to believe that it will help you too?

CARDUI is purely vegetable and non-intoxicating. It acts gently but surely on the delicate female constitution, relieving pain and restoring health. Cardui is easy to take and has no bad after-effects. Try it today. It will help you. For sale at all druggists.
